

NORTH CAROLINA SYMPHONY

2009 - 2010 SPECIAL EVENTS

Thursday, December 31, 2009, 7:30pm

Grant Llewellyn, Music Director

New Year's Eve Extravaganza

An Evening of Prodigious Talent

Nobody does New Year's Eve like the North Carolina Symphony. Countdown to midnight with our sure-to-be sold-out evening of beautiful music and great company! Join Music Director Grant Llewellyn and his special guests—outrageously talented young artists from North Carolina performing stunning musical feats!

Thursday, January 14, 2010, 7:30pm

Grant Llewellyn, Music Director

Joshua Bell

Arguably one of the world's preeminent violinists, Joshua Bell has won the hearts and minds of audiences and critics alike. In this special one-night-only engagement, he'll play Bruch's Scottish Fantasy with the orchestra.

Sunday, February 14, 2010, 7:30pm

Sarah Hicks, conductor

A Broadway Romance

Take your sweetheart out on a date to this concert of Broadway's best love songs, with music from such hits as West Side Story, Chicago, My Fair Lady, Oklahoma and Anything Goes. Thoroughly romantic, completely entertaining.

February 26-27, 2010, 8:00pm

William Henry Curry, Resident Conductor

Johnny Mathis

You won't want to miss seeing legendary vocalist Johnny Mathis join with the North Carolina Symphony to perform his hits "Chances Are," "Wonderful! Wonderful!," "It's Not for Me to Say," and "Misty."

WWW.NCSYMPHONY.ORG - 919.733.2750

Dates, programs and artists are subject to change.